SENIORS

SENIOR OFFICERS

President

DANIEL MURPHY

582 Lincoln Avenue

"Danny"

Scientific

Danny's athletic ability, friendliness, and personality will make him as well liked in college as he is in high school. We doubt that he'll be able to avoid his aversion — homework — there.

Senior Class President; Boys' Club, Director 3, 4; Glee Club, Vice-President 4; Student Council 1; Junior Red Cross Council 3; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Co-Captain 4; Baseball 2, 4; Hockey 4; Track 4.

Vice-President

LAURENCE WATSON

66 Ballard Street

"Trigger"

Scientific

"Trigger" lets nothing disturb his pleasant humor except English Grammar. He plans to be an electrical engineer; and his favorite sport is hockey.

Class Vice-President 1, 4; Marshal Squad 3, 4; Photography Club 3, 4; Focus Staff 4; Track 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Director 3; Senior Dance Committee; Senior Play Cast.

Secretary

MARILYN STEPH

10 Lake Circle

"June"

General

We'll miss her smile, we'll miss her laugh, but most of all we'll miss her. We hope that June won't meet any snobby people when she goes to work after graduation.

Girls' Club; Marshal Squad 2, 3, 4; Student Council 4; Class Secretary 4.

Treasurer

BARBARA PINCISS

126 Winter Street

"Barb"

General

We're sure that pretty Barb with her quiet ways, will be a success at college. We're sure too, that she won't find her aversion, spiders, there.

Girls' Club; Junior Red Cross Council 3; Class Treasurer 4; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Dance Committee; Dramatic Club 4; Girls' Choir 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Girls' Club Dance Committee 3; Senior Play Committee; Senior Play Cast.

HONOR ESSAYISTS

Valedictorian
KENT FREDERICKSON
77 Cleveland Avenue

"Kentie"

CLASS ODE

Dearer by far than treasured gold are cherished memories;
The happy hours recalled to mind are precious legacies.
O Saugus High School! rich, abundant is thy memory store;
And reminiscent pleasures shall be ours evermore.

Tonight amid these festive rites we pause to view the past;
Endeavors led to triumph, we achieved our aim at last;
And though obstructions barred our path and sometimes brought dismay,
They often served as guideposts to direct us on our way.

There's more, indeed, than knowledge earned for graduates to prize . . .
Among thy offerings we count the faithful friendship ties—
Assurance that they're steadfast, like an ancient citadel,
Casts in our skies a rainbow as we sing a fond farewell.

With youthful optimism we expect new goals to gain,
But calm reflection tells us that not all success attain;
Although we stumble on Life's road, we still can persevere
And hold to standards and ideals that have been taught us here.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Officers elected for the year by the Sachem Chapter of the National Honor Society were: President, Edwin Sproul; Vice-president, Joan Rice; Secretary, Gloria Audet; and Treasurer, Carol Page.

The numerous activities of the National Honor Society commenced, this year, with the sale of student book covers in conjunction with the Student Council. On September 18, over $100 was collected at the annual football dance. The proceeds of this dance will go towards a scholarship fund. In November the National Honor Society donated $5.00 to the piano fund.

Members of the organization worked on a revision of the constitution, this year. Recommendations were made by the members and then presented before the National Honor Society Advisory Board for Approval.

In April the third annual assembly for the purpose of initiating new members was held. The new members were chosen because of their high rank in scholarship, their constant willingness to render service, their ability to lead, and their unquestionable character. The twelve seniors elected were the following: Richard Hennigar; Lorraine Bragg, Mariette Maes, Dorothy Blades, Roberta Esdale, Lois Pye, Lorraine Canavan, Beverly Booth, James Mullen, Joanne Needham, Beryl Hatch, and Ethel Hamilton. The following sophomores were elected: Morrin E. Hazel, Shirley A. McCully, Carole Pearson, Anthony Provenzano, and Abigail Watson.

In February, members of the National Honor Society attended the Ice Follies. The social events of the year were brought to a close in May by an outing which was enjoyed by all the members.

GIRLS' CLUB

The Girls' Club officially began its active social year in October with an impressive installation ceremony, marking the club's thirteenth anniversary. Mrs. John Taylor, past president, was the installing officer. The officers installed for the year 1949-1950 were Lorraine Bragg, President; Eunice Nichols, Vice-President; Jeanne Arbetter, Secretary; and Dolores Daviaux, Treasurer. The chairmen of the standing committees were Ann Sprague, Membership; Joan York, Program; Joan Stead, Ways and Means; Janice Weir, Social; Donna Julien, Service.

The annual Girls' Club Formal Dance held in December, featuring Manuel's Black and White Orchestra, was a huge success, both financially and socially. Miss Jane Berret, former student of Saugus High School rendered a very beautiful reading entitled, "The Littlest Angel", at the Christmas assembly. She was accompanied by the Girls' Choir, under the direction of Miss Elaine Grillo. A group of band members furnished musical background for the singing of carols. Particularly interesting, were the meetings at which, Mr. McCarthy, prominent businessman, spoke to the girls on experiencing blindness, and Reverend Willis Miller speaking on the topic, "Magic with a Message." The program took a humorous slant in March and April, with the gay-ninety review of the first "fifty years." The last two meetings were a hilarious pantomime and a play presented by drama students of the Bishop Lee School.

The season was brought to a close with the election of officers and the reception given by the Junior girls to the incoming Freshman.

SENIOR PLAY

"The Divine Flora", a three act comedy by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, was presented at the Town Hall on March 3, by the members of the senior class. The production was under the competent direction of Mrs. Amy Hanson Jones, who also coached last year's fine play.

Quotable highlights of the play:

Janice Weir . . . "Trouble is, I can't tell which is back and which is front."

Richie Hennigar . . . "You're merchandising her wrong."

Kent Frederickson . . . " . . . make it look like you look the way you don't look by letting you look the way you do look."

Eddie Sproul . . . "Well, when you're troubled with barnacles, just let me know."

Gloria Audet . . . "Now if we only had a cake."

Joan York . . . "Just a little friend of baby brother's."

Joe Kryzwicki . . . "Well, here I am, folks."

Selden Wade . . . "First paper that suggests it, I'll sue for a million."

Joanne Needham . . . "Randy! Buzz! Surprise!"

Lois Pye . . . "With a load of dynamite."

Other members of the cast included Cynthia Haley, Mariette Maes, Cynthia Hecht, Eleanor Brostrom, Joseph Bernard, Lawrence Watson, Robert Platt, Richard Warren, Marjorie Gavin, Barbara Pinciss, Beryl Hatch, Joan Rice, Carol Robinson, Janice Lassell, Pauline Boudreau, and Catherine Burke.

CAMERA CLUB OFFICERS

SAHICO CLUB

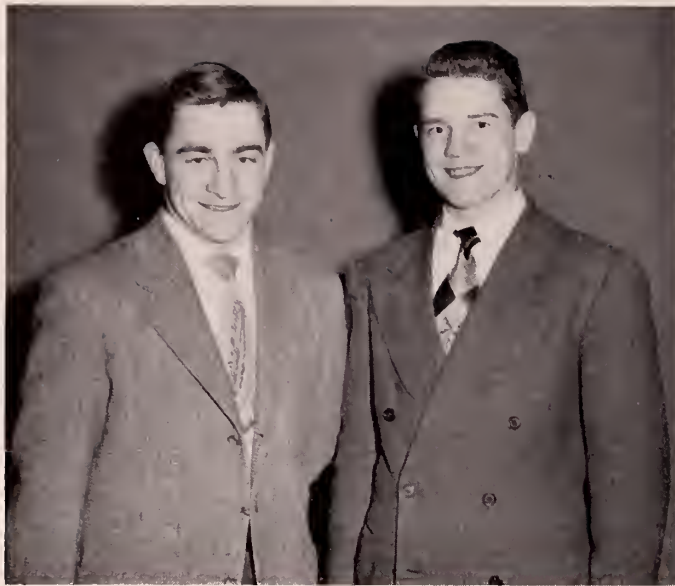

This year's Sahico Club is composed of twenty-four competent Senior Commercial Girls, who are always eager to lend an able hand to do commercial work for anyone.

Officers are: President, Arlene Manual; Vice-President, Louise Milley; Secretary, Christine Sweezey; Treasurer, Ann Sprague. With the helpful guidance of Miss Marison, the girls have not only become experienced in commercial work, but have had many good times.

The purpose of this club is to give the girls practical business experience, to encourage social spirit, and to enable them to have social contact.

The first enjoyable activity of the year was a Halloween party at Joan York's house. Costumes, games, and eats combined to make a hilarious time for everyone. At Lorraine Bragg's home, a Valentine party was enjoyed. Valentines were exchanged, refreshments were served, and games added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Year-end plans included another social evening and an outing at Hampton Beach.

SENATE AND HOUSE NOMINEES

FOOTBALL FOLIO

Revengeing the defeat they suffered at the expense of Brookline last year, the Saugus eleven downed the Wealthy Towners 26-14 at Tech Field, Brookline.

The staunch Saugus forward wall stopped the Brookline running attack and the Sachems took possession of the pigskin on the Brookline 15. It took Saugus just four plays to score. Freddy Quinlan and Sardi Nicolo were the main yard gainers, and Leo Kane booted the ball to put the Sachems ahead 7-0 at the end of the first period.

At the offset of the second period, the Sachems scored their second touchdown. In this drive fleet-footed Quinlan sparked the attack by breaking through the Brookline defense for runs of 25 to 15 yards respectively. Richie Nicolo passed to end Ted Fredericks to set the ball on the Brookline four. From there Richie scored on a quarterback sneak.

Aided by a precision-like block by Dan Murphy, Sardi Nicolo raced 27 yards for the third Saugus score. Kane's point was not good.

Charlie Woodell wound up the Saugus scoring for the afternoon by circling his right end and racing 35 yards to go over standing up. Leo Kane followed with the point after.

Ransom took the Saugus kickoff and ran 97 yards for Beverly's first touchdown. The Sachems' first score also resulted from a 97 yard drive, Quinlan and Sardi Nicolo doing the bulk of the carrying. Following this touchdown, Ransom was trapped behind his goal for a two point safety to make the score Saugus 8, Beverly 6.

In the third period, Beverly's Carr tossed a 35-yard aerial to Ransom. Trying to ground the pass, a Saugus defender battered the ball into Ransom's arms. This put Beverly ahead 13 to 8. But Saugus would not give up. Freddy Quinlan battered his way through the whole Beverly team for 27 yards. Kane's extra point pushed the score to Saugus 15, Beverly 13.

With the score 15-13 at the offset of the 4th period, the play that rocked Manning Bowl occurred. A pass by Carr was brought down by both Nicolo and a Beverly player. Nicolo wrested the ball away and started for the Beverly goal, thinking, as did all the fans that he had scored a touchdown. But the referee called the play a simultaneous catch, and ruled that the ball went to the offensive team, Beverly.

Six thousand football fans at Lynn's Manning Bowl watched Saugus defeat Lynn Classical 20-7. Sardi Nicolo walked off with the scoring laurels for the night by scoring two touchdowns for the night.

After a sustained drive of 56 yards, the stage was set. Richie Nicolo tossed a looping 34 yard pass into the outstretched arms of Ted Fredericks. Fred Quinlan ran off tackle to score. Kane booted the extra point.

After an exchange of punts, the Sachems struck again. This time they kept to the ground, grinding out yard after yard through the porous Classical line. The Saugus line was too much to cope with. After Serino, Quinlan, R. Nicolo and S. Nicolo had brought the ball within scoring range, Sardi Nicolo dived over from the five yard line. Kane kicked point. Classical came to life early in the fourth period when they drove 64 yards. Cronin terminated the Classical drive by trotting over from the two yard line.

Saugus wound up scoring festivities for the night when quarterback Richie Nicolo set up Ted Fredericks with the same pass play as in the first period.

Scoring with the fury of a charging bull, the Saugus High football team coasted to a 27-0 win over a meek and undermanned Amesbury eleven at Stackpole Field.

Before Amesbury could get their footing, the Saugus line was opening gaps in the Amesbury line. Quinlan, the Nicolos and Serino brought the ball to the visitors' five. From there Sardi powered his way over behind great blocking. Leo Kane converted.

A pass interception set up the second Saugus score. Just two plays after this, Sardi Nicolo took a pitch out from his brother Richie and galloped 53 yards down the sidelines for the best run of the day. Kane kicked his second of three point afters over the crossbar.

The Saugus gridders took to the airways for their final score. Two passes thrown by Richie, one to Ted Fredericks and the other to Charlie Woodell, set the ball on the Carriage Makers' 15. Charlie Woodell, displaying some fancy stepping on the end around, scored standing up. Kane's try for the extra point went astray.

The Saugus Sachems scalped Chelsea High with the almost incredible score of 40-0. Sardi's touchdowns were one run of 15 yards, a six yard line plunge, and a 53 yard jaunt that electrified the fans. Ted Frederick was on the end of a Richie Nicolo 40 yard pass to score for Saugus. Charlie Woodell tallied on a jump pass from Richie Nicolo. When Richie couldn't find a free man to pass to, he romped across the Chelsea goal unmolested. Leo Kane racked up two afters.

Playing their toughest opponent thus far this season, Saugus came out of Manning Bowl with their fourth win of the year over a rough Lynn English squad. Sardi Nicolo pushed his number of points scored this year to 68.

Although it was Sardi Nicolo who broke up the game with his magnificent 67 yard touchdown run, Quinlan was the boy who came into his own through his running and tackling. To climax his terrific play, he received a 20 yard pass from Richie Nicolo in the third period which he turned into a score.

Sardi Nicolo, breaking loose with the aid of some beautiful blocking by the Saugus line, terminated a 56 yard march in the third period with a 20 yard touchdown run. Richie Nicolo's pass to Ted Frederick was good for one Saugus point; a line buck by Sardi Nicolo counted for the second extra point.

Shattering the all-time record set by the 1922 Saugus team, the Saugus warriors buried Revere under a blanket of 53 points.

Having been held by the Beach lads 6-0 at the end of the half, Saugus exploded with the force of a volcano. This is what happened in that third period. Sardi Nicolo straddled the sidelines on a 25 yard run; Tony Serino got into the limelight by scoring his first touchdown of the year on a 15 yard spurt; Sardi, applying the same tactics as in the first run, galloped 40 yards; Freddy Quinlan, running like a deer, tallied on a 15 yard touchdown dash; Charlie Woodell was on the end of a Richie Nicolo pass which netted him a score; Freddy Quinlan grabbed his third touchdown on a smashing line buck; and Ken Richard pounced on a Revere fumble in the closing minutes to make the game read like a basketball score. Leo Kane, the lad with the educated toe, kicked the ball over the cross bar four times to account for the extra points.

Shattering all scoring records, for any one team, the high pointed geared Saugus football eleven subdued a tough Swampscott eleven 28-0.

Fred Quinlan and Richie Nicolo grabbed the scoring honors for the day as they each counted with two touchdowns each.

As the half ended Richie Nicolo was pitching pass after pass trying to connect with Charlie Woodell who was standing in the Swampscott end zone.

Fred Quinlan climaxed the scoring honors for the day, scoring on a 15 yard end run, Kane converting, and taking a pitch out from Richie Nicolo and turned it into a score.

Swampscott was hammering at the Sachems goal line through the major part of the last period.

A 175 pound Saugus lad broke the Marblehead game wide open when he grabbed one of Lou Hettinger's passes; then scored on a 36 yards run to put Saugus ahead 6-0 early in the third period. Playing a fine game, Marano intercepted four passes.

After Marano's feat, the rout was on. On a reverse play, Sardi Nicolo with the aid of his brother Richie scampered 74 yards to the Magicians' goal line. Kane followed with a point after.

The final two scores came in the last period when Freddy Quinlan plunged over from the five; and Bud Demaci, playing his first game of this year, ran 37 yards for the final score.

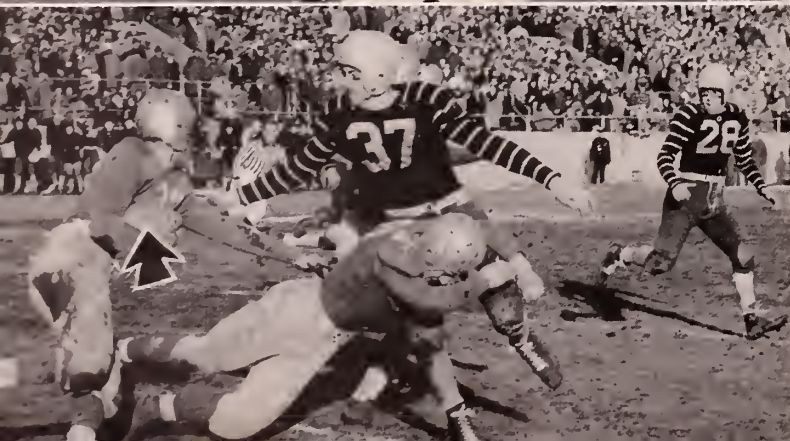

Marblehead's only score came in the final minutes as the result of a Saugus fumble.

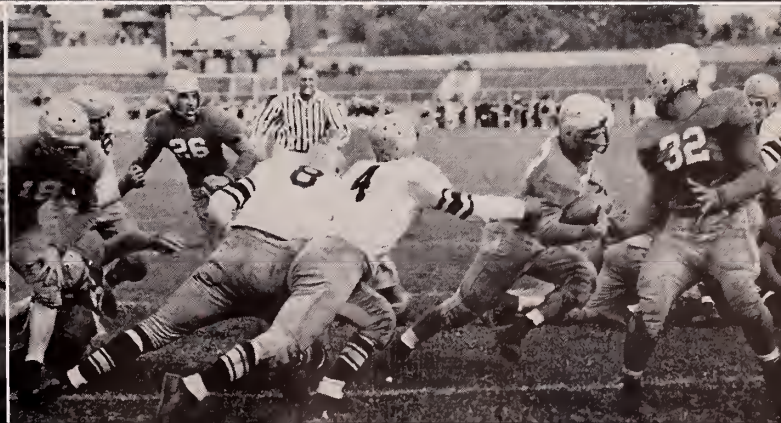

Stalling for two periods, but finally coming to life in the third and fourth periods, the Sachems handed Peabody a 26-6 loss before a large crowd at Stackpole's Field on Thanksgiving morning.

After being held down for a full period by an under-rated team, Saugus finally awoke. Richie Nicolo tossed a 13 yard pass to Charlie Woodell who raced 29 yards to score for Saugus.

By recovering a loose Peabody fumble, Fred Quinlan set up the second Saugus score. Richie Nicolo again heaved a 28 yard aerial to Charlie Woodell who scored. Kane kicked the extra point.

The last two touchdowns were made by Sardi Nicolo, one on a 29 yard spurt down the side lines, and the other on a 10 yard end sweep. Kane converted on the last score.

BASKETBALL

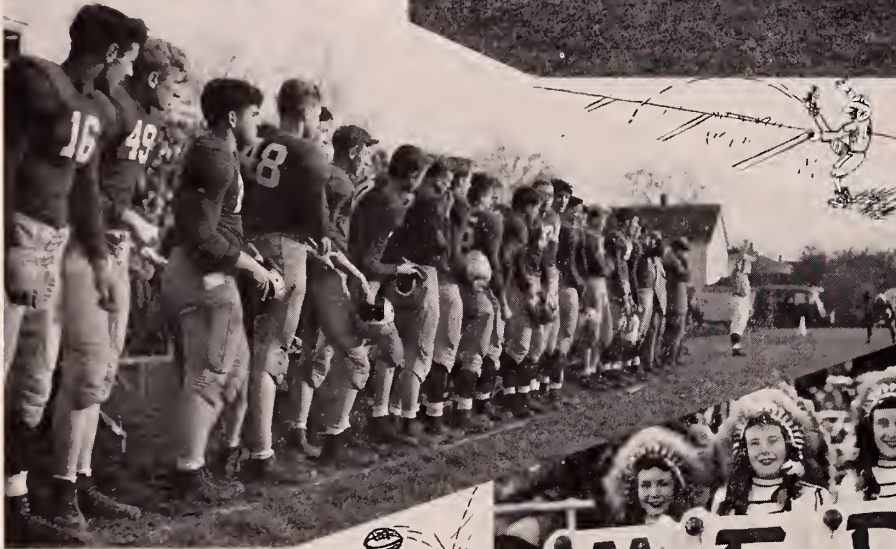

The basketball team coached by John Scarborough, showed very clearly the lack of a high school gym in their unsuccessful season.

In the opening game the Sachems went down to defeat before Danvers 46-21. Jack White scored 11 points for Saugus. The team lost to a powerful Marblehead team 54-16. Turk Taylor caged 6 points. In the third game of the season Saugus was beaten by Swampscott 58-27. Graham sank 8 points for the losers. In the next game Winthrop defeated the home team 66-20. White sank 8 points. In the fifth game Amesbury was the victor 53-21. Jack White scored 11 points.

In the second half of the season Saugus was defeated by Danvers 39-25, Swampscott 56-35, Marblehead 93-28, and by Amesbury 44-33: Bob Walker was the outstanding scorer for Saugus in these games.

The Saugus seconds had a more successful season. They beat the Swampscott seconds 25-17. Most of the Sachems have one or more years to play, so that better seasons can be expected.

HOCKEY

After two successive years as champions of the North Shore League, Saugus graduated almost its entire championship team and started anew. The results weren't as good as were hoped. The best the Sachems could do this year was three ties in eleven starts. All games were played indoors at the North Shore Sports Center.

Saugus lost their first two games to Beverly and Peabody, 3-0 and 2-0. Stan Popp scored the first Sachem goal against Danvers, but Saugus again lost, 2-1. In the fourth game, although Saugus outplayed Amesbury, they were unable to score, and the game ended 0-0. Saugus then took on Gloucester, and was handed a 7-0 defeat by the Fishermen, who eventually took the league crown.

In the sixth game, it wasn't until the third period, after Salem had scored two goals, that Saugus began to move. With two men in the penalty box for each team, Green scored on a solo, then Nicholson, on a scramble in front of the Salem net, slipped one past the goalie. The game ended in a 2-2 tie.

The next two games Saugus lost, first to Swampscott 2-0, then to Marblehead 5-2. Eastman and Gage scored for the Sachems.

Saugus battled Classical on even grounds for one period, but then the roof fell in and Classical won, 7-1. Leading in the third period 1-0 against Lynn English, it looked like a Saugus victory, but English scored with less than two minutes to play to end it at 1-1. In one of the fastest and most exciting games of the year, Revere eked out a 3-1 victory over the high-spirited Sachems.

Though the record was poor, most of the players were young, which should mean more successful years to come.
